A STUDY ON ECONOMICS AND HEALTH CARE RESTRUCTURING - THE NEED FOR BETTER GOVERNANCE

PROF. B K RAGHAVAN*

*Principal,
East West College of Management,
Bangalore.
Research Scholar,
Vinayaka Missions University,
Salem.

ABSTRACT

India has been held as an example of a country that has managed the financial crisis adequately because of its strict fiscal and monetary policy as well as its timely reaction to the financial crisis. The study states that Globalization on economic crisis which is a buzz word is not affecting all the sectors. Further, If the sector is getting affected indirectly, it can be restructured with proper governance on certain areas.

KEYWORDS: Health care restructuring, governance, globalization.